PIED PIPER FARMS' GOLDEN SUPERIOR
Performance Registry International's 26th Certified Meat Sire

Pied Piper Farms' Bull, Golden Superior, Rated PRI 'Meat Sire'

Golden Superior, a Hereford Bull owned by Pied Piper Farms of Hamlin, has qualified as performance Registry International's 26th Certified Meat Sire, according to John J. Heckman, PRI executive secretary.

The bull qualified with a CMS rating of 80 per cent which is 30 points over the standard CMS qualifying score. Only five of the other 25 bulls in the nation have qualified with a higher score and two others qualified with the same score.

Golden Superior is the main herd sire Pied Piper Farms and his progeny are qualifying in every PRI field. He has also qualified for PRI's Production Registry with 78 calves averaging 506 pounds at 205 days. This is 31 pounds over PRI's qualifying weight of 475 pounds.

The Performance Registry International is a rating organization of all breeds and the Certified Meat Sire Qualification certifies that the animal will breed a meat-type animal. In making the test, ten steers were slaughtered and eight met or exceeded the qualifications set by the organization. At least five of the steers must meet these standards for the sire to be rated.

The bull was bred by O. R. Burnham of McCaulley. His sire is Superior 99, and his dam is Gwendoline 6.

The steers slaughtered were out of registered Certified Anxiety 4th Hereford cows. They were fed on Pied Piper's own farm and slaughtered at the Gooch Packing Company in Abilene.

This project was started by the late Fred B. Moore, Jr., and carried on by his son, F. Barry Moore and their ranch manager, Doyle Ponder, who are now taking charge of the Pied Piper registered herd.

In making the tests the animal must show a 1.25 pound gain per day, weighing the warm carcass; the size of the Ribeye is measured; and the fat thickness is measured. Of the ten animals slaughtered, eight exceeded the requirements set in all three tests.

Of the 26 animals to qualify as Certified Meat Sires, seven are Angus, four are Red Angus, five are Herefords, four are polled Herefords and six are Charolais.

Attempt to Be Made to Clear Up County Court Criminal Docket

An attempt will be made this month to clear up the county court docket which has a backlog of well over 100 untried criminal cases. Some of these date back to 1962.

County Judge Leon Thurman said Monday that he probably would set Monday, Feb. 15 for hearing on some 30 cases. The date previously had been set as Feb. 8, but Judge Owen Thomas will conduct district court that day. As a general rule, county and district court does not meet at the same time because often attorneys have conflicts.

County Attorney Ben Nie-decken said he has gone over the many cases on file and he believes can be tried. Others, he said, are incomplete insofar as records are concerned. This group for the most part represents cases that have been appealed from justice or corporation courts.

Where, in his judgment, the state does not have a case, Mr. Niedecken said he would ask for a dismissal.

License Plates Go On Sale Here

Texas license plates have a "new look" this year according to Wesley Nail of Turner-Nail Insurance Agency, who issues the tags in Hamlin. Each passenger plate has a three-letter prefix followed by two or three numerals. Hamlin's plates will be CZJ 800 to 990 CZK 10 to 999 and CZL 10 to 999.

Sales of the tags started here Monday and will end April 1. Commercial and miscellaneous vehicles retain their own special registration system.

Mr. Nail says that a good many people rush to buy plates the first week of sales, but the biggest flurry falls during the last week of March.

Current registration receipt, certificate of title — and money — are needed to complete the transaction.

Lost receipts or ownership papers may be replaced easily enough by sending 25 cents for each duplicate desired to the Department's Motor Vehicle Division in Austin (40th and Jackson Streets). But remember — to issue a duplicate the Department needs your license number, make and vehicle identification number. Receipts may also be obtained from the county in which the vehicle was registered, by the way.

The new passenger registration system will enable the Department to cope with the increasing vehicle registration. Since World War II, approximately a quarter-million more vehicles have been registered yearly in the state. This trend should continue, but the new system should provide sufficient numbers for at least the next ten years.

Texas tags this year have black letters on white. Convinced that black and white provide the most readable combination under both day and night conditions, the Highway Department alternates the color pattern. In odd years, plates have black lettering on white; in even years, it's just the opposite. It's also more economical to stay with the two basic colors, the Department has decided.

Speaking of economy, plates provide a revenue source for building and maintaining roads. They also have another primary purpose: identification. Because of the latter, the Department strives for simplicity in plate design. Therefore, plates in Texas contain only the necessary information: license number, state and year.

The simplicity in design is of great value to the Texas police. The Texas Police Association has announced that an automobile is involved in 90 per cent of major crimes committed in the state. It is most important that plates be readable from a reasonable distance.

Property Taxes Account for 66 Per Cent of County's Revenue

(Special to the Herald)

NEW YORK — How large are property taxes in Jones County compared with what they are in other places in the United States? How much of the local revenue is obtained from property taxes?

The subject of local taxes and operating costs have become matters of major importance in cities and counties all over the country. Many communities are in financial plight and are desperately seeking new ways of raising cash.

In some localities, certain types of taxes that were suggested in previous years and were turned down as being inappropriate, are now being reconsidered.

In New York City, for example, a proposal that was often made and always rejected—to raise money by legalizing off-track betting—is being dusted off.

In Jones County, according to the Commerce Department's latest "Census of Governments" property taxes now account for 66.0 per cent of all revenue raised locally.

By way of comparison, in other communities throughout the United States, the amount obtained from property taxes averages 69.0 per cent of the total. In the State of Texas it is 77.0 per cent.

Although the property tax has declined in relative importance in recent years, it is still the mainstay of most local governments.

The survey shows that a wide variation exists in the size of property taxes levied in different parts of the country.

For residents of Jones County, the per capita cost is $59.55 per year. Elsewhere in Texas, it averages $83.17. On the national level, it amounts to $99.09 per capita.

The search for new sources of revenue to meet local needs is taking various directions. In some localities, emphasis is being placed on increases in license fees and charges for public services. In others, where proper authority has been obtained from the state, sales taxes and income taxes have been applied.

The Tax Foundation reports that the revenue from sales taxes and gross receipts taxes has increased nearly 400 per cent in the last 17 years. In the same period, the yield from property taxes has gone up 300 per cent.

She ran into a spot where the visibility was zero and slowed up to keep from hitting anyone in front of her when a car plowed into her's from behind, then a car also hit the one that had hit hers. She reported that cars were coming, almost hitting them all again, but out of the seven people involved in the pile-up, none were seriously injured. Mrs. Kee's car received about $600 dollars damage, the other two being almost demolished. We have been in those dust storms in that area and know how terrible they can be, they were all so fortunate to come out of it without any more serious injuries, other than to their cars, they can always be replaced.

REMEMBER WHEN?

"I bet there are few people alive today who remember when this 1895 antique was actually used as a source of heat. Besides not giving out just an awful lot of heat to an awful lot of space, it didn't exactly smell like the breath of spring either. Times have certainly changed. Now-a-days safe, flameless electric heating carries even, steady heat to all parts of a room or home. Hot spots, cold spots and drafts are things of the past. Since electric heating is totally flameless there are no pilot flames to go out or gaseous odors, no soot, film, smoke, or residue to rest on indoor walls and furniture. The house stays clean, comfortable, and fresh smelling. If you aren't enjoying the comforts of flameless electric heat call a WTU representative or see your electrical heating contractor right away."

See us. We deliver: big-car luxury, not just a big-car name.

Remember this fact when you're shopping big-car names. If you don't get the room to begin with, you don't get the luxury. That's why Chryslers come in only one size. Large. Here's another point to consider. Almost half of the '65 Chryslers are priced only a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars comparably equipped. Last point. If you're going to pay the price of a Chrysler, get one.

On Top

The Bible, "God's holy word," is still the best seller, and most quoted book. From the original Greek and Hebrew, this book has been translated into many languages.

Through the centuries men have devotedly studied and sought out the truth in the Bible. When one reads the Bible with an open mind, God's word is "as sharp as a two edged sword."

Attend Church Sunday and study God's word.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

AUSTIN, Jan. 31 — Visitors invaded the state's attractions in record numbers during 1964, a year - end survey by the Texas Tourist Development Agency has revealed.

Accounting for an increasing significant portion of the increase was a rising volume of out-of-state guests. Note was taken also of swelling Mexican and Canadian markets.

business is especially marked by Midwestern visitors. It said Canadian visitors are also much more in evidence this winter.

Turning to the accelerating pace of attendance growth, a Cameron County Park supervisor commented, "We have had an unprecedented year on South Padre Island . . . our motel report they are up 12 per cent over 1963."

Another Use For Magnet When refinishing ultra-deluxe items like a gun stock or rod rack, run a magnet over the surface before varnishing. It will pick up every last trace of steel wool used to smooth the surface.

Handy Lure Box Some salt water fishermen use toothbrush holders to store their feathered lures. Keeps 'em in good shape a lot longer than bouncing around in the bottom of a tackle box.

Inertube Protects Motor When transporting your outboard motor in the trunk of your auto, try placing it on a half-inflated inertube. Tube reduces the bumps of the car to mere quivers. This helps prevent injury to the motor or parts from shaking.

included in the tabulation were 18 attractions plus the state parks. They were situated in every part of Texas.

Together they reported hosting 24,989,714 visitors, an increase of 3,006,484 over 1963.

Indicative of the similarity in experience with burgeoning numbers of out-of-state visitors were attractions in two far-distant parts of the state: Six Flags Over Texas in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and the John F. Kennedy Memorial Causeway near Corpus Christi. Each reported identical 24 per cent increases in non-Texas business.

The Southwestern Historical Wax Museum in Dallas' Fair Park told TTDA its non-Texas business accounted for half of all tickets sold last year. And the Old Stone Fort in Nacogdoches took note of a "sharp increase" in out-of-state visitors.

Commenting on the upturn in total autumn - winter attendance, Aquarena at San Marcos talked of a 76 per cent gain in the December - January period compared with the same period a year earlier. A "tremendous increase" in visitors from Mexico was noted.

Wonder Cave, also in San Marcos, said its brisk winter

Oil and Gas Head Urges Support for State's Pooling Bill

Citizens of Jones County, producer of some $17.1 million worth of oil and gas a year, have a special interest in the "pooling" bill now before the Texas Legislature, James L. Sewell, Dallas, president of Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, reported this week.

"Although Jones County has production, the oil men who operate here, as well as the landowners and governmental officials, are interested in securing maximum development," Sewell said. "A pooling law will encourage a more efficient and more equitable approach to development of our oil and gas resources."

A measure, supported by all segments of the Texas petroleum industry after two years of intra - industry conferences and study, was recently introduced as Senate Bill 2 by Senator Galloway Calhoun, Jr., of Tyler, and as House Bill 2 by Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge.

Sewell stressed that the measure does not affect normal leasing and voluntary pooling arrangements between landowners and operators, nor does it affect in any way reservoirs discovered and produced before March 8, 1961 (date of the Supreme Court decision that wells on small tracts could not produce at rates disproportionately higher than adjoining tracts).

"The pooling bill is designed to make it possible for mineral owners — regardless of the size of the tract of land they may have — to get their fair share of the oil and gas that may underlay their acreage," he said.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN. — Education still rates top priority in the State capital. But it was viewed in a new light after Gov. John Connally revealed his program to the State Legislature.

Connally took the suggestion of his Committee on Education beyond the High School that a strong coordinating board be created to administer State colleges and universities. He adopted his plan to put public junior colleges under that board and then told the Legislators the State should assume full financing of instructional costs of junior college academic programs.

Three - Board College System — Real surprise in Connally's approach to higher education came in his proposal that all existing college and university boards of regents be abolished and the higher education institutions be regrouped into three systems.

Even this idea held an added surprise, since Connally recommended establishment of an agricultural and technical university in San Antonio, to serve all of South Texas.

Under the three system approach, there would be a University of Texas System composed of the University of Texas at Austin, Texas Western College, Arlington State College, North Texas State University, Texas Woman's University, University of Houston, Texas Southern University and all medical and dental units.

Texas State University System would consist of A & M University, Texas Technological College, Prairie View A & M College, Tarleton State College, Lamar State College of Technology, Texas A & I College and the proposed San Antonio university.

A State Senior College System would include Midwestern University, Pan American College, East Texas State College, Sam Houston State Teachers' College, Southwest Texas State College, West Texas State University, Stephen F. Austin State College, Sul Ross State College and Angelo State College.

AUSTIN — A goodly share of the 3,000 Texans who went to Washington for President Lyndon Johnson's inauguration went through the same sort of celebration — on a much smaller scale — in Austin Monday and Tuesday.

Following Monday's early-afternoon State Democratic Executive Meeting, the round of State Inaugural parties began. One of the best-attended was a reception in the Gondolier Hotel for House Speaker Ben Barnes of DeLeon and Dan Blocker (the "Boss Cartwright" of Bonanza fame).

"Boss" was a headliner, along with TV celebrity Edie Adams, at the $25-per-plate Democratic Victory Dinner, honoring Gov. John Connally, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and other party winners.

Following the solemn ceremony of the swearing-in of Connally and Smith on Tuesday, another round of luncheons and receptions began. Gov. and Mrs. Connally received thousands of visitors at a reception in the Governor's Mansion, across the street from the Capitol.

Connally's kind of celebration, heavy of the folksy flavor, is a far cry from the former custom of a series of governor's bills on the eve of Inauguration.

Bill Filing Begins — First bill filed in the House of Representatives was one by Rep. Maud Isaacks of El Paso — only woman member in the House. It would allow youngsters 15½ years old to obtain drivers licenses if they pass approved drivers education courses. It's designed also to abolish the special motor scooter and motor bike licenses.

Distilled Spirits Bill — A measure which sponsors say will raise $10,000,000 in tax money for the State, during the next two years, has hit the legislative hopper. It is not a liquor by the drink bill. But it would make available to people dining in Texas restaurants tiny, 2-oz. (or less) bottles of distilled spirits.

Bill calls for an annual license fee of $500 from each restaurant providing the service. Sponsors claim it will encourage tourism while at the same time will not permit open bars.

Measure was introduced in the upper house by Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg and in the lower house by Rep. Willis Watley of Houston.

Teacher Bill In — A bill raising the salary of school teachers $45 a month for each month of the school year was assured of passage in the House. Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, who is sponsoring the measure, in-

NEW BRILLIANCE FOR THE STUDENT

... with the TENSOR STUDENT LAMP, a rugged, all-metal high-intensity lamp designed specifically for student use. This mini-sized lamp weighs only 2 pounds, takes up less than six square inches on a crowded desk, yet produces a powerful, glare-free light of sun-like brilliance.

Key to its amazing performance is the Tensor-engineered transformer that steps down the voltage of a standard AC socket, steps up light intensity to the equivalent of a 100-watt conventional desk lamp.

The Tensor Student Lamp provides the perfect light for reading, for desk use at home or in the dormitory, for library work, for microscope illumination, for drafting, for dissecting, for specimen study, for model construction. It makes those last-minute cram sessions a lot easier on the eyes, too.

The lamp's flexible gooseneck arm and swivel reflector let you direct the light precisely where you want it. Yet it's practically tip-proof, thanks to its weighted base. It's good looking, too, with its neutral gray wrinkle finish and chrome gooseneck.

So brighten things for the student prince (or princess) in your family by getting him a Tensor Student Lamp. You'll find it encourages good reading and study habits. Warning: if there are more than one student in your household, better get a Tensor Student Lamp for each. People become very attached to their Tensor, don't surrender them easily.

Tensor Student Lamp: $995

He quickly got more than 80 signatures, a majority of the House members.

Bill probably will have easy sailing in the Senate, where it was introduced by Sen. A. M. Aiken, Jr. of Paris, joined by Sens. J. P. Word of Meridian, Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur and Jim Bates of Edinburg.

Another bill asked by the teachers, one providing for five days sick leave a year cumulative to 30 days, was introduced by Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge. Both bills are being sponsored by the Texas State Teachers Association.

Beef Import Measure Introduced — A plan to discourage the purchase of imported beef by Texans was laid out by Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo.

His proposal would make it illegal — subject to fines up to $500 and a jail sentence — to sell imported meat, unless the grocer displays a sign six by 12 inches large, with the words, "Imported Meat Sold Here," and labels packaged meat. "Product of ...," stating country of origin.

County School Support — Texas Gibbons said the bill "emphasizes safeguards to make sure pooling orders will be fair to all parties." It would allow forced pooling only after every effort to pool voluntarily on a fair basis had failed.

Hog Cholera Eradication — A bill has been introduced which would permit the Texas Animal Health Commission to cooperate with the Animal Disease Eradication branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in an effort to do away with hog cholera in the state.

If the bill by Rep. Grainger W. McIlhenny of Wheeler is passed, Texas would become the 48th state to join the nationwide program.

Authorized would be use of biologicals, quarantine of infected animals and slaughter of infected animals with payment to owners. This would not be done until incidence became law, according to the Texas Farm Bureau one of the backers of the bill.

This would be the third major animal health campaign launched by Texas farmers and ranchers in recent years. The other two, against brucellosis and the screwworm have been very successful.

Poll Tax Fight Renewed — Bills which would put poll tax repeal on the Nov., 1966, ballot — via constitutional amendments — have been introduced in both houses of the Legislature.

A proposal by Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio also would try to extend the vote to all military personnel who qualified under residency requirements presently applicable to other Texas voters. House measure, co-sponsored by Dallas Representatives James W. Stroud and Cooper Blankenship, specifies that military personnel could vote only in the county in which they resided at the time they entered the service.

Communist Permit More Difficult — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr complained that U. S. Supreme Court is making it more difficult to enforce the state law regarding prosecution of communists.

Carr issued his statement after the high court had struck down a warrant under which he and Bexar County Dist. Atty. James Barlow seized 2,000 books and pamphlets from San Antonian John Stanford.

Material was confiscated Dec. 27, 1963, after Stanford was ordered to register as a Communist by the Subversive Activities Control Board.

"Under each decision of the U. S. Supreme Court regarding state prosecution of Communists, it becomes more difficult to enforce our state laws, but we intend to continue our efforts as vigorously as possible," Carr said.

TFB Head Opposes Charge — C. H. DeVaney, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, told more than 70 legislators attending a bureau legislative conference in Austin that redistricting solely on the basis of population would seriously hurt state and national government.

DeVaney believes the Legislature should work toward an amendment to the U. S. Constitution which would override the Supreme Court decisions on reapportionment.

Carr speaks — State Supreme Court held that Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr should approve the $48,500,000 interim bond issue of Trinity River Authority, for land purchase and construction of Livingston Reservoir, unless refusal is based on a lawsuit challenging the bonds.

Court, in a conditional order, upheld TRA's right to issue interim bonds while final bonds are in preparation. Carr objected to certain features of the bonds and cited a suit attacking the issue. He said bonds should not be approved until nine questions raised had been settled.

Supreme Court said it would not decide "questions raised by the nine objections," and directed its opinion to objections of Carr to the bonds themselves.

Court of Criminal Appeals held courts cannot decide whether state legislators from large counties should be elected countywide or in small individual districts. Ruling that the matter is up to the Legislature upheld district court decision in a suit brought by Robert Hainsworth, Houston Negro, who claims countywide elections discriminate against Negroes.

Supreme Court will hear Port Arthur's suit against ex-directors of a Jefferson County water district growing out of purchase of a water system. Lower courts held statute of limitations for hearing the dispute had run out.

Committee on State and Local Tax Policy recommended that the proportionate share of the Minimum Foundation Program which is borne by local taxing authorities in the Local Fund Assignment be increased by a total of some $19,000,000 over the next two years.

Committee stated that State government is providing $56 more per pupil for public school education than the national average, while local governments are providing $93 per pupil less than local governments of other states.

No recommendation was made regarding Governor Connally's proposal that the State ad valorem tax be abolished — one way county and city governments would have more tax leeway — but it is rumored that the committee made its recommendation with that in mind.

Tipro Pooling Bill In — Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge is garnering support for the petroleum pooling bill — a product of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, which he is sponsoring in the House.

Colored Bridges? — Texas bridges may take on an Easter egg hue.

Texas Highway Department announces it is considering painting overpasses and other structures in different colors. State officials gave a happy birthday salute to the City of Austin on the 125th anniversary of its selection as the capital by the Fourth Congress of the Republic of Texas on January 19, 1840. State Securities Board permits authorizing sale by 44 corporations of $21,700,000 worth of securities in Texas, an increase of $9.4 for same month

It already is trying out a few shades of gray.

Theory is that pastel shades will help relieve the monotony for drivers, thus making travel safer and more pleasant.

K. K. Moore, supervising paint engineer of the THD Materials and Tests Division points out two problems. First agreeing on colors, and second, more rapid fading of brighter hues. He predicts some standard color will be used in another five years.

South Dakota, a jump ahead, already is planning to paint all its interstate overpass bridges in blue, pink, green, yellow, lavender and orange.

Short Snorts — Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro was reappointed by Governor Connally to serve as Secretary of State, a term that runs concurrently with that of the governor. Connally also reappointed to six year terms: Hal O. Woodward of Coleman to the State Highway Commission, Jack Ross of McAllen to the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, and Will Odom of Austin to the State Parks and Wildlife Commission.

AUSTIN, Jan. 31 — Visitors invaded the state's attractions in record numbers during 1964, a year - end survey by the Texas Tourist Development Agency has revealed.

Accounting for an increasingly significant portion of the increase was a rising volume of out-of-state guests. Note was taken also of swelling Mexican and Canadian markets.

Attendance records for the year reflect an across - the - board increase of 14 per cent — almost identical with the mid-year tabulation. But, while attractions were reporting out-of-state figures of only about 6 per cent then, by year-end non-Texas business had climbed to 24 per cent at representative sites.

Included in the tabulation were 18 attractions plus the state parks. They were situated in every part of Texas.

Together they reported hosting 24,989,714 visitors, an increase of 3,006,484 over 1963.

Indicative of the similarity in experience with burgeoning numbers of out-of-state visitors were attractions in two far-distant parts of the state: Six Flags Over Texas in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and the John F. Kennedy Memorial Causeway near Corpus Christi. Each reported identical 24 per cent increases in non-Texas business.

The Southwestern Historical Wax Museum in Dallas' Fair Park told TTDA its non-Texas business accounted for half of all tickets sold last year. And the Old Stone Fort in Nacogdoches took note of a "sharp increase" in out-of-state visitors.

Commenting on the upturn in total autumn - winter attendance, Aquarena at San Marcos talked of a 76 per cent gain in the December - January period compared with the same period a year earlier. A "tremendous increase" in visitors from Mexico was noted.

Wonder Cave, also in San Marcos, said its brisk winter

Oil and Gas Head Urges Support for State's Pooling Bill

Citizens of Jones County, producer of some $17.1 million worth of oil and gas a year, have a special interest in the "pooling" bill now before the Texas Legislature, James L. Sewell, Dallas, president of Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, reported this week.

"Although Jones County has production, the oil men who operate here, as well as the landowners and governmental officials, are interested in securing maximum development," Sewell said. "A pooling law will encourage a more efficient and more equitable approach to development of our oil and gas resources."

A measure, supported by all segments of the Texas petroleum industry after two years of intra - industry conferences and study, was recently introduced as Senate Bill 2 by Senator Galloway Calhoun, Jr., of Tyler, and as House Bill 2 by Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge.

Sewell stressed that the measure does not affect normal leasing and voluntary pooling arrangements between landowners and operators, nor does it affect in any way reservoirs discovered and produced before March 8, 1961 (date of the Supreme Court decision that wells on small tracts could not produce at rates disproportionately higher than adjoining tracts).

"The pooling bill is designed to make it possible for mineral owners — regardless of the size of the tract of land they may have — to get their fair share of the oil and gas that may underlay their acreage," he said.

Handy Lure Box

Some salt water fishermen use toothbrush holders to store their feathered lures. Keeps 'em in good shape a lot longer than bouncing around in the bottom of a tackle box.

Inertube Protects Motor

When transporting your outboard motor in the trunk of your auto, try placing it on a half-inflated inertube.

Tube reduces the bumps of the car to mere quivers. This helps prevent injury to the motor or tests from shaking business is especially marked by Midwestern visitors. It said Canadian visitors are also much more in evidence this winter.

Turning to the accelerating pace of attendance growth, a Cameron County Park supervisor commented, "We have had an unprecedented year on South Padre Island... our motels report they are up 12 per cent over 1963.

"It took South Padre nearly six years to count its first million visitors, another four years to county the second million and the third million will take only three years."

All-time highs were reported by the Lake Texoma Association which said its nearly 8.2 million visitors last year exceeded by 160,000 the previous record of 1957.

Fort Davis National Historic Site in far West Texas was host to 86,500 visitors last year who came from 47 states and 32 foreign nations. Although only in its first year of operation as a national facility, it attracted 10,000 more visitors than the more established and better-known Fort Laramie National Historic Site in Wyoming.

The Panhandle-Plains Museum at Canyon said its 89,329 visitors came from all 50 states and 73 foreign countries. And, at the other side of the state, the Sam Houston Memorial Museum in Huntsville had guests "from every state but New Hampshire."

Largest single percentage of increase was recorded by Nacogdoches' Old Stone Fort whose 5,269 added visitors last year accounted for a 41 per cent gain over 1963.

High too was the Lake O' Pines near Jefferson in East Texas which posted a 30 per cent gain with 978,351 more guests than a year earlier.

Although giant Lake Texoma on the Texas-Oklahoma border outdrew all other individual far outdrew all other individual attractions with 8,197,400 visitors.

In comparison, attendance at 45 sites in the state park system accounted for 7,910,691 guests, a 9 per cent gain over the 1963 figure.

Other significant gains were recorded by the Fort Bliss Republica Museum in El Paso, up 26 per cent; the venerated Alamo, whose 285,000 registered visitors were responsible for a 24 per cent increase, and Alamo Village near Brackettville and San Marcos' Aquarena, each up 19 per cent.

Six Flags Over Texas, in its third full season, drew 1,622,432 visitors for a 13 per cent increase.

Other reporting attractions and their percentage of gain for 1964 over 1963 include:

Buckhorn Hall of Horns in San Antonio, 14 per cent; Queen Isabel Causeway onto South Padre Island, 13 per cent; San Jacinto Battleground Museum, 10 per cent; Caverns of Sonora, 9 per cent; Witte Memorial Museum in San Antonio, 6 per cent; El Paso's Aerial Tramway, 5 per cent and the Big Bend National Park, also 5 per cent with 119,698 guests.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Education still rates top priority in the State capital. But it was viewed in a new light after Gov. John Connally revealed his program to the State Legislature.

Connally took the suggestion of his Committee on Education beyond the High School that a strong coordinating board be created to administer State colleges and universities. He adopted its plan to put public junior colleges under that board and then told the Legislators the State should assume full financing of instructional costs of junior college academic programs.

Three - Board College System — Real surprise in Connally's approach to higher education came in his proposal that all existing college and university boards of regents be abolished and the higher education institutions be regrouped into three systems.

Even this idea held an added surprise, since Connally recommended establishment of an agricultural and technical university in San Antonio, to serve all of South Texas.

Under the three system approach, there would be a University of Texas System composed of the University of Texas in Austin, Texas Western College, Arlington State College, North Texas State University, Texas Woman's University, University of Houston, Texas Southern University and all medical and dental units.

Texas State University System would consist of A & M University, Texas Technological College, Prairie View A & M College, Tarleton State College, Lamar State College of Technology, Texas A & I College and the proposed San Antonio university.

A State Senior College System would include Midwestern University, Pan American College, East Texas State College, Sam Houston State Teachers' College, Southwest Texas State College, West Texas State University, Stephen F. Austin State College, Sul Ross State College and Angelo State College.

AUSTIN — A goodly share of the 3,000 Texans who went to Washington for President Lyndon Johnson's inauguration went through the same sort of celebration — on a much smaller scale — in Austin Monday and Tuesday.

Following Monday's early-afternoon State Democratic Executive Meeting, the round of State Inaugural parties began. One of the best-attended was a reception in the Gondolier Hotel for House Speaker Ben Barnes of DeLeon and Dan Blocker (the "Boss Cartwright" of Bonanza fame).

"Boss" was a headliner, along with TV celebrity Edie Adams, at the $25-per-plate Democratic Victory Dinner, honoring Gov. John Connally, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and other party winners.

Following the solemn ceremony of the swearing-in of Connally and Smith on Tuesday, another round of luncheons and receptions began. Gov. and Mrs. Connally received thousands of visitors at a reception in the Governor's Mansion, across the street from the Capitol.

Connally's kind of celebration, heavy of the folksy flavor, is a far cry from the former custom of a series of governor's bills on the eve of Inauguration.

Bill Filing Begins — First bill filed in the House of Representatives was one by Rep. Maud Isaacks of El Paso — only woman member in the House. It would allow youngsters 15½ years old to obtain drivers licenses if they pass approved drivers education courses. It's designed also to abolish the special motor scooter and motor bike licenses.

Distilled Spirits Bill — A measure which sponsors say will raise $10,000,000 in tax money for the State, during the next two years, has hit the legislative hopper. It is not a liquor by the drink bill. But it would make available to people dining in Texas restaurants tiny, 2-oz. (or less) bottles of distilled spirits.

Bill calls for an annual license fee of $500 from each restaurant providing the service. Sponsors claim it will encourage tourism while at the same time will not permit open bars.

Measure was introduced in the upper house by Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg and in the lower house by Rep. Willis Watley of Houston.

Teacher Bill In — A bill raising the salary of school teachers $45 a month for each month of passage in the House. Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, who is sponsoring the measure, in-

He quickly got more than 80 signatures, a majority of the House members.

Bill probably will have easy sailing in the Senate, where it was introduced by Sen. A. M. Aiken, Jr., of Paris, joined by Sens. J. P. Word of Meridian, Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur and Jim Bates of Edinburg.

Another bill asked by the teachers, one providing for five days sick leave a year cumulative to 30 days, was introduced by Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge. Both bills are being sponsored by the Texas State Teachers Association.

Beef Import Measure Introduced — A plan to discourage the purchase of imported beef by Texans was laid out by Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo.

His proposal would make it illegal — subject to fines up to $500 and a jail sentence — to sell imported meat, unless the grocer displays a sign six by 12 inches large, with the words, "Imported Meat Sold Here," and labels packaged meat. "Product of . . .", stating country of origin.

County School Support — Texas Gibbons said the bill "emphasizes safeguards to make sure pooling orders will be fair to all parties." It would allow forced pooling only after every effort to pool voluntarily on a fair basis had failed.

Hog Cholera Eradication — A bill has been introduced which would permit the Texas Animal Health Commission to cooperate with the Animal Disease Eradication branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in an effort to do away with hog cholera in the state.

If the bill by Rep. Grainger W. McIlhenny of Wheeler is passed, Texas would become the 48th state to join the nationwide program.

Authorized would be use of biologicals, quarantine of infected animals and slaughter of infected animals with payment to owners. This would not be done until incidence became law, according to the Texas Farm Bureau one of the backers of the bill.

This would be the third major animal health campaign launched by Texas farmers and ranchers in recent years. The other two, against brucellosis and the screwworm have been very successful.

Poll Tax Fight Renewed — Bills which would put poll tax repeal on the Nov., 1966, ballot — via constitutional amendments — have been introduced in both houses of the Legislature.

A proposal by Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio also would try to extend the vote to all military personnel who qualified under residency requirements presently applicable to other Texas voters. House measure, co-sponsored by Dallas Representatives James W. Stroud and Cooper Blankenship, specifies that military personnel could vote only in the county in which they resided at the time they entered the service.

Communist Persecution More Difficult — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr complained that U. S. Supreme Court is making it more difficult to enforce the state law regarding prosecution of communists.

Carr issued his statement after the high court had struck down a warrant under which he and Bexar County Dist. Atty. James Barlow seized 2,000 books and pamphlets from San Antonian John Stanford.

Material was confiscated Dec. 27, 1963, after Stanford was ordered to register as a Communist by the Subversive Activities Control Board.

"Under each decision of the U. S. Supreme Court regarding state prosecution of Communists, it becomes more difficult to enforce our state laws, but we intend to continue our efforts as vigorously as possible," Carr said.

TFB Head Opposes Charge — C. H. DeVaney, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, told more than 70 legislators attending a bureau legislative conference in Austin that redistricting solely on the basis of population would seriously hurt state and national government.

DeVaney believes the Legislature should work toward an amendment to the U. S. Constitution which would override the Supreme Court decisions on reapportionment.

Court Speaks — State Supreme Court held that Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr should approve the $48,500,000 interim bond issue of Trinity River Authority, for land purchase and construction of Livingston Reservoir, unless refusal is based on a lawsuit challenging the bonds.

Court, in a conditional order, upheld TRA's right to issue interim bonds while final bonds are in preparation. Carr objected to certain features of the bonds and cited a suit attacking the issue. He said bonds should not be approved until nine questions raised had been settled.

Supreme Court said it would not decide "questions raised by the nine objections," and directed its opinion to objections of Carr to the bonds themselves.

Court of Criminal Appeals held courts cannot decide whether state legislators from large counties should be elected countywide or in small individual districts. Ruling that the matter is up to the Legislature upheld district court decision in a suit brought by Robert Hainsworth, Houston Negro, who claims countywide elections discriminate against Negroes.

Supreme Court will hear Port Arthur's suit against ex-directors of a Jefferson County water district growing out of purchase of a water system. Lower courts held statute of limitations for hearing the dispute had run out.

Committee on State and Local Tax Policy recommended that the proportionate share of the Minimum Foundation Program which is borne by local taxing authorities in the Local Fund Assignment be increased by a total of some $19,000,000 over the next two years.

Committee stated that State government is providing $56 more per pupil for public school education than the national average, while local governments are providing $93 per pupil less than local governments of other states.

No recommendation was made regarding Governor Connally's proposal that the State ad valorem tax be abolished — one way county and city governments would have more tax leeway — but it is rumored that the committee made its recommendation with that in mind.

Tipro Pooling Bill In — Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge is garnering support for the petroleum pooling bill — a product of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, which he is sponsoring in the House.

Colored Bridges? — Texas bridges may take on an Easter egg hue.

Texas Highway Department announces it is considering painting overpasses and other structures in different colors. State officials gave a happy birthday salute to the City of Austin on the 125th anniversary of its selection as the capital by the Fourth Congress of the Republic of Texas on January 19, 1840. State Securities Board during last month issued permits authorizing sale by 44 corporations of $21,700,000 worth of securities in Texas, an increase of $9.4 for same month.

It already is trying out a few shades of gray.

Theory is that pastel shades will help relieve the monotony for drivers, thus making travel safer and more pleasant.

K. K. Moore, supervising paint engineer of the THD Materials and Tests Division points out two problems. First agreeing on colors, and second, more rapid fading of brighter hues. He predicts some standard color will be used in another five years.

South Dakota, a jump ahead, already is planning to paint all its interstate overpass bridges in blue, pink, green, yellow, lavender and orange.

Short Snorts — Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro was reappointed by Governor Connally to serve as Secretary of State, a term that runs concurrently with that of the governor. Connally also reappointed to six year terms: Hal O. Woodward of Coleman to the State Highway Commission, Jack Ross of McAllen to the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, and Will Odom of Austin to the State Parks and Wildlife Commission.

NEW BRILLIANCE FOR THE STUDENT

... with the Tensor Student Lamp, a rugged, all-metal high-intensity lamp designed specifically for student use. This mite-sized lamp weighs only 2 pounds, takes up less than six square inches on a crowded desk, yet produces a powerful, glare-free light of sun-like brilliance.

Key to its amazing performance is the Tensor-engineered transformer that steps down the voltage of a standard AC socket, steps up light intensity to the equivalent of a 100-watt conventional desk lamp.

The Tensor Student Lamp provides the perfect light for reading, for desk use at home or in the dormitory, for library work, for microscope illumination, for drafting, for dissecting, for specimen study, for model construction. It makes those last-minute cram sessions a lot easier on the eyes, too.

The lamp's flexible gooseneck arm and swivel reflector let you direct the light precisely where you want it. Yet it's practically tip-proof, thanks to its weighted base. It's good looking, too, with its neutral gray wrinkle finish and chrome gooseneck.

So brighten things for the student prince (or princess) in your family by getting him a Tensor Student Lamp. You'll find it encourages good reading and study habits. Warning: if there are more than one student in your household, better get a Tensor Student Lamp for each. People become very attached to their Tensor, don't surrender them easily.

PIED PIPER FARMS' GOLDEN SUPERIOR
Performance Registry International's 26th Certified Meat Sire

Pied Piper Farms' Bull, Golden Superior, Rated PRI 'Meat Sire'

Golden Superior, a Hereford Bull owned by Pied Piper Farms of Hamlin, has qualified as performance Registry International's 26th Certified Meat Sire, according to John J. Heckman, PRI executive secretary.

The bull qualified with a CMS rating of 80 per cent which is 30 points over the standard CMS qualifying score. Only five of the other 25 bulls in the nation have qualified with a higher score and two others qualified with the same score.

Golden Superior is the main herd sire Pied Piper Farms and his progeny are qualifying in every PRI field. He has also qualified for PRI's Production Registry with 78 calves averaging 506 pounds at 205 days. This is 31 pounds over PRI's qualifying weight of 475 pounds.

The Performance Registry International is a rating organization of all breeds and the Certified Meat Sire Qualification certifies that the animal will breed a meat-type animal. In making the test, ten steers were slaughtered and eight met or exceeded the qualifications set by the organization. At least five of the steers must meet these standards for the Sire to be rated.

The bull was bred by O. R. Burnham of McCaulley. His sire is Superior 99, and his dam is Gwendoline 6.

The steers slaughtered were

Funeral was held at 2 p. m. Monday in First Baptist Church with the Rev. Byron Bryant, pastor, and the Rev. Jack Southerland, pastor of Stamford First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Aspermont Cemetery.

Born Oct. 13, 1884, in Mississippi, she married Joe Hudspeth Oct. 14, 1907 in Raynet, Tex. He died in 1951. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors are three sons, Hilton of Fayetteville, Ark., Joe, Jr., of Hamlin and L. G. of Dallas; a brother, Lynn Flowers of Old Glory; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Burialbearers were C. F. Cook, Hollis Madden, Frank Legan, A. E. Ball of Aspermont, Garrett Spitzer and Travis Beal of Old Glory.

out of registered Certified Anxiety 4th Hereford cows. They were fed on Pied Piper's own farm and slaughtered at the Gooch Packing Company in Abilene.

This project was started by the late Fred B. Moore, Jr., and carried on by his son, F. Barry Moore and their ranch manager, Doyle Ponder, who are now taking charge of the Pied Piper registered herd.

In making the tests the animal must show a 1.25 pound gain per day, weighing the warm carcass; the size of the Ribeye is measured; and the fat thickness is measured. Of the ten animals slaughtered, eight exceeded the requirements set in all three tests.

Of the 26 animals to qualify as Certified Meat Sires, seven are Angus, four are Red Angus, five are Herefords, four are polled Herefords and six are Charolais.

The annual Mother's March held here Thursday night raised $687.10 for the March of Dimes. This brought the total raised in this Lions Club sponsored fund drive to $687.10, according to Bob Craig, president.

The Mother's March was sponsored this year by the Parent-Teachers Association, Mrs. Jack Vaughn, president. Chairmen of the drive were Mrs. Elwood Hambright and Mrs. R. L. Goodgame.

Attempt to Be Made to Clear Up County Court Criminal Docket

An attempt will be made this month to clear up the county court docket which has a backlog of well over 100 untried criminal cases. Some of these date back to 1962.

County Judge Leon Thurman said Monday that he probably would set Monday, Feb. 15 for hearing on some 30 cases. The date previously had been set as Feb. 8, but Judge Owen Thomas will conduct district court that day. As a general rule, county and district court does not meet at the same time because often attorneys have conflicts.

County Attorney Ben Niedeen said he has gone over the many cases on file and has weeded out those which he believes can be tried. Others, he said, are incomplete insofar as records are concerned. This group for the most part represents cases that have been appealed from justice or corporation courts.

Where, in his judgment, the state does not have a case, Mr. Niedeen said he would ask for a dismissal.

Sponsor Program

The United Pentecostal Church, 219 N. E. Ave. B, is one of the sponsors of a radio program on the Sweetwater station, WTSU, 1220. The program, "Harvestime", national radio voice of the United Pentecostal Church, is presented each Sunday at 2 p. m.

The half-hour program is being presented by the churches of Hamlin, Colorado City and Sweetwater, according to C. E. Councilman, local pastor.

License Plates Go On Sale Here

Texas license plates have a "new look" this year according to Wesley Nail of Turner-Nail Insurance Agency, who issues the tags in Hamlin. Each passenger plate has a three-letter prefix followed by two or three numerals. Hamlin's plates will be CZJ 800 to 990 CZK 10 to 999 and CZL 10 to 999.

Sales of the tags started here Monday and will end April 1. Commercial and miscellaneous vehicles retain their own special registration system.

Mr. Nail says that a good many people rush to buy plates the first week of sales, but the biggest flurry falls during the last week of March.

Current registration receipt, certificate of title—and money enough to pay for the plates—are needed to complete the transaction.

Last receipts or ownership papers may be replaced easily enough by sending 25 cents for each duplicate desired to the Department's Motor Vehicle Division in Austin (40th and Jackson Streets). But remember—to issue a duplicate the Department needs your license number, make and vehicle identification number. Receipts may also be obtained from the county in which the vehicle was registered, by the way.

The new passenger registration system will enable the Department to cope with the increasing vehicle registration. Since World War II, approximately a quarter-million more vehicles have been registered yearly in the state. This trend should continue, but the new system should provide sufficient numbers for at least the next ten years.

Texas tags this year have black letters on white. Convinced that black and white provide the most readable combination under both day and night conditions, the Highway Department alternates the color pattern. In odd years, plates have black lettering on white; in even years, its just the opposite. It's also more economical to stay with the two basic colors, the Department has decided.

Speaking of economy, plates provide a revenue source for building and maintaining roads. They also have another primary purpose: identification. Because of the latter, the Department strives for simplicity in plate design. Therefore, plates in Texas contain only the necessary information: license number, state and year.

The simplicity in design is of great value to the Texas police. The Texas Police Association has announced that an automobile is involved in 90 per cent of major crimes committed in the state. It is most important that plates be readable from a reasonable distance.

Texas plates are.

being her first visit away from adults to attend the Study Course being taught by the pastor. We were happy to have twelve for last Wednesday night.

Near tragedy struck in this reported family again last Monday afternoon when Mrs. Henry Kee of Lubbock was involved in a wreck two miles south of Plainview, Texas.

Mrs. Kee, the sister of Elmer Joiner had attended a funeral in Plainview for the grandchild of a friend of hers and had started home. She ran into a spot where the visibility was zero and slowed up to keep from hitting anyone in front of her when a car plowed into her's from behind, then a car also hit the one that had hit hers. She reported that cars were coming, almost hitting them all again, but out of the seven people involved in the pile-up, none were seriously injured.

Mrs. Kee's car received about $600 dollars damage, the other two being almost demolished. We have been in those dust storms in that area and know how terrible they can be, they were all so fortunate to come out of it without any more serious injuries, other than to their cars, they can always be replaced.

REMEMBER WHEN?

"I bet there are few people alive today who remember when this 1895 antique was actually used as a source of heat. Besides not giving out just an awful lot of heat to an awful lot of space, it didn't exactly smell like the breath of spring either. Times have certainly changed.

Now-a-days safe, flameless electric heating carries even, steady heat to all parts of a room or home. Hot spots, cold spots and drafts are things of the past. Since electric heating is totally flameless there are no pilot flames to go out or gaseous odors, no soot, film, smoke, or residue to rest on indoor walls and furniture. The house stays clean, comfortable, and fresh smelling.

If you aren't enjoying the comforts of flameless electric heat call a WTU representative or see your electrical heating contractor right away."

See us. We deliver: big-car luxury, not just a big-car name.

Remember this fact when you're shopping big-car names. If you don't get the room to begin with, you don't get the luxury. That's why Chryslers come in only one size. Large.

Here's another point to consider. Almost half of the '65 Chryslers are priced only a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars comparably equipped. Last point. If you're going to pay the price of a Chrysler, get one.

On Top

The Bible, "God's holy word," is still the best seller, and most quoted book. From the original Greek and Hebrew, this book has been translated into many languages.

Through the centuries men have devotedly studied and sought out the truth in the Bible. When one reads the Bible with an open mind God's word is "as sharp as a two edged sword."

Attend Church Sunday and study God's word.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Out-of-State Visitors to Texas Show 14% Increase Over 1963

AUSTIN, Jan. 31 — Visitors invaded the state's attractions in record numbers during 1964, a year - end survey by the Texas Tourist Development Agency has revealed.

Accounting for an increasingly significant portion of the increase was a rising volume of out-of-state guests. Note was taken also of swelling Mexican and Canadian markets.

Attendance records for the year reflect an across - the - board increase of 14 per cent — almost identical with the mid-year tabulation. But, while attractions were reporting out-of-state figures of only about 6 per cent then, by year-end non-Texas business had climbed to 24 per cent at representative sites.

Included in the tabulation were 18 attractions plus the state parks. They were situated in every part of Texas.

Together they reported hosting 24,989,714 visitors, an increase of 3,006,484 over 1963.

Indicative of the similarity in experience with burgeoning numbers of out-of-state visitors were attractions in two far-flung parts of the state: Six Flags Over Texas in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and the John F. Kennedy Memorial Causeway near Corpus Christi. Each reported identical 24 per cent increases in non-Texas business.

The Southwestern Historical Wax Museum in Dallas' Fair Park told TDDA its non-Texas business accounted for half of all tickets sold last year. And the Old Stone Fort in Nacogdoches took note of a "sharp increase" in out-of-state visitors.

Commenting on the upturn in total autumn - winter attendance, Aquarena at San Marcos talked of a 76 per cent gain in the December - January period compared with the same period a year earlier. A "tremendous increase" in visitors from Mexico was noted.

Wonder Cave, also in San Marcos, said its brisk winter

business is especially marked by Midwestern visitors. It said Canadian visitors are also much more in evidence this winter.

Turning to the accelerating pace of attendance growth, a Cameron County Park supervisor commented, "We have had an unprecedented year on South Padre Island... our motels report they are up 12 per cent over 1963."

"It took South Padre nearly six years to count its first million visitors, another four years to county the second million and the third million will take only three years."

All-time highs were reported by the Lake Texoma Association which said its nearly 8.2 million visitors last year exceeded by 160,000 the previous record of 1957.

Fort Davis National Historic Site in far West Texas was host to 86,500 visitors last year who came from 47 states and 32 foreign nations. Although only in its first year of operation as a national facility, it attracted 10,000 more visitors than the more established and better-known Fort Laramie National Historic Site in Wyoming.

The Panhandle-Plains Museum at Canyon said its 89,329 visitors came from all 50 states and 73 foreign countries. And, at the other side of the state, the Sam Houston Memorial Museum in Huntsville had guests "from every state but New Hampshire."

Largest single percentage of increase was recorded by Nacogdoches' Old Stone Fort whose 5,269 added visitors last year accounted for a 41 per cent gain over 1963.

High too was the Lake O'Pines near Jefferson in East Texas which posted a 30 per cent gain with 978,351 more guests than a year earlier.

Although giant Lake Texoma on the Texas-Oklahoma border far outdrew all other individual attractions with 8,197,400 visitors.

In comparison, attendance at 45 sites in the state park system accounted for 7,910,691 guests, a 9 per cent gain over the 1963 figure.

Other significant gains were recorded by the Fort Bliss Replica Museum in El Paso, up 26 per cent; the venerated Alamo, whose 285,000 registered visitors were responsible for a 24 per cent increase, and Alamo Village near Brackettville and San Marcos' Aquarena, each up 19 per cent.

Six Flags Over Texas, in its third full season, drew 1,622,432 visitors for a 13 per cent increase.

Other reporting attractions and their percentage of gain for 1964 over 1963 include:

Buckhorn Hall of Horns in San Antonio, 14 per cent; Queen Isabel Causeway onto South Padre Island, 13 per cent; San Jacinto Battleground Museum, 10 per cent; Caverns of Sonora, 9 per cent; Witte Memorial Museum in San Antonio, 6 per cent; El Paso's Aerial Tramway, 5 per cent and the Big Bend National Park, also 5 per cent with 119,698 guests.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN. — Education still has top priority in the State capital. But it was viewed in a new light after Gov. John Connally revealed his program to the State Legislature.

Connally took the suggestion of his Committee on Education beyond the High School that a strong coordinating board be created to administer State colleges and universities. He adopted its plan to put public junior colleges under that board and then told the Legislators the State should assume full financing of instructional costs of junior college academic programs.

Three - Board College System — Real surprise in Connally's approach to higher education came in his proposal that all existing college and university boards of regents be abolished and the higher education institutions be regrouped into three systems.

Even this idea held an added surprise, since Connally recommended establishment of an agricultural and technical university in San Antonio, to serve all of South Texas.

Under the three system approach, there would be a University of Texas System composed of the University of Texas at Austin, Texas Western College, Arlington State College, North Texas State University, Texas Woman's University, University of Houston, Texas Southern University and all medical and dental units.

Texas State University System would consist of A & M University, Texas Technological College, Prairie View A & M College, Tarleton State College, Lamar State College of Technology, Texas A & I College and the proposed San Antonio university.

A State Senior College System would include Midwestern University, Pan American College, East Texas State College, Sam Houston State Teachers' College, Southwest Texas State College, West Texas State University, Stephen F. Austin State College, Sul Ross State College and Angelo State College.

AUSTIN — A goodly share of the 3,000 Texans who went to Washington for President Lyndon Johnson's inauguration went through the same sort of celebration — on a much smaller scale — in Austin Monday and Tuesday.

Following Monday's early-afternoon State Democratic Executive Meeting, the round of State Inaugural parties began. One of the best-attended was a reception in the Gondolier Hotel for House Speaker Ben Barnes of DeLeon and Dan Blocker (the "Boss Cartwright" of Bonanza fame).

"Boss" was a headliner, along with TV celebrity Edie Adams, at the $25-per-plate Democratic Victory Dinner, honoring Gov. John Connally, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and other party winners.

Following the solemn ceremony of the swearing-in of Connally and Smith on Tuesday, another round of luncheons and receptions began. Gov. and Mrs. Connally received thousands of visitors at a reception in the Governor's Mansion, across the street from the Capitol.

Connally's kind of celebration, heavy of the folksy flavor, is a far cry from the former custom of a series of governor's bills on the eve of Inauguration.

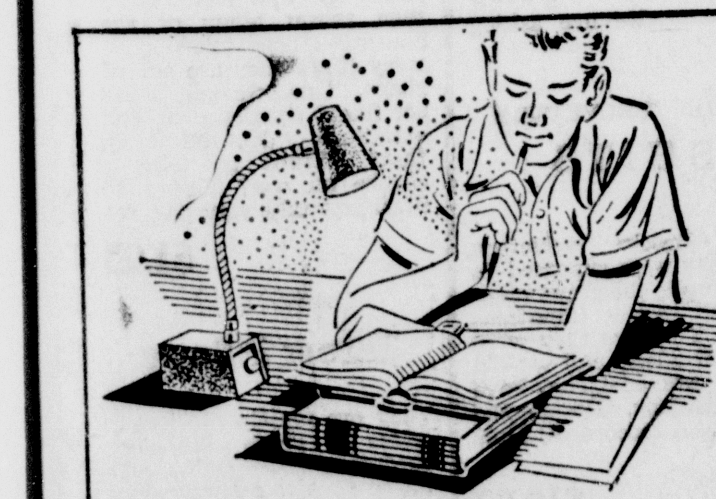

Bill Filing Begins — First bill filed in the House of Representatives was one by Rep. Maud Isaacks of El Paso — only woman member in the House. It would allow youngsters 15½ years old to obtain drivers licenses if they pass approved drivers education courses. It's designed also to abolish the special motor scooter and motor bike licenses.

Distilled Spirits Bill — A measure which sponsors say will raise $10,000,000 in tax money for the State, during the next two years, has hit the legislative hopper. It is not a liquor bill. But it would make available to people dining in Texas restaurants tiny, 2-oz. (or less) bottles of distilled spirits.

Bill calls for an annual license fee of $500 from each restaurant providing the service. Sponsors claim it will encourage tourism while at the same time will not permit open bars.

Measure was introduced in the upper house by Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg and in the lower house by Rep. Willis Watley of Houston.

Teacher Bill In — A bill raising the salary of school teachers $45 a month for each month of the school year was assured of passage in the House. Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, who is sponsoring the measure, in-

NEW BRILLIANCE FOR THE STUDENT

... with the TENSOR STUDENT LAMP, a rugged, all-metal high-intensity lamp designed specifically for student use. This mite-sized lamp weighs only 2 pounds, takes up less than six square inches on a crowded desk, yet produces a powerful, glare-free light of sun-like brilliance.

Key to its amazing performance is the Tensor-engineered transformer that steps down the voltage of a standard AC socket, steps up light intensity to the equivalent of a 100-watt conventional desk lamp.

The Tensor Student Lamp provides the perfect light for reading, for desk use at home or in the dormitory, for library work, for microscope illumination, for drafting, for dissecting, for specimen study, for model construction. It makes those last-minute cram sessions a lot easier on the eyes, too.

The lamp's flexible gooseneck arm and swivel reflector let you direct the light precisely where you want it. Yet it's practically tip-proof, thanks to its weighted base. It's good looking, too, with its neutral gray wrinkle finish and chrome gooseneck.

So brighten things for the student prince (or princess) in your family by getting him a Tensor Student Lamp. You'll find it encourages good reading and study habits. Warning: if there are more than one student in your household, better get a Tensor Student Lamp for each. People become very attached to their Tensor, don't surrender them easily.

Tensor Student Lamp: $995

He quickly got more than 80 signatures, a majority of the House members.

Bill probably will have easy sailing in the Senate, where it was introduced by Sen. A. M. Aiken, Jr. of Paris, joined by Sens. J. P. Word of Meridian, Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur and Jim Bates of Edinburg.

Another bill asked by the teachers, one providing for five days sick leave a year cumulative to 30 days, was introduced by Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge. Both bills are being sponsored by the Texas State Teachers Association.

Beef Import Measure Introduced — A plan to discourage the purchase of imported beef by Texans was laid out by Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo.

His proposal would make it illegal — subject to fines up to $500 and a jail sentence — to sell imported meat, unless the grocer displays a sign six by 12 inches large, with the words, "Imported Meat Sold Here," and labels packaged meat, "Product of..." stating country of origin.

County School Support — Texas Gibbons said the bill "emphasizes safeguards to make sure pooling orders will be fair to all parties." It would allow forced pooling only after every effort to pool voluntarily on a fair basis had failed.

Hog Cholera Eradication — A bill has been introduced which would permit the Texas Animal Health Commission to cooperate with the Animal Disease Eradication branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in an effort to do away with hog cholera in the state.

If the bill by Rep. Grainger W. McIlhenny of Wheeler is passed, Texas would become the 48th state to join the nationwide program.

Authorized would be use of biologicals, quarantine of infected animals and slaughter of infected animals with payment to owners. This would not be done until incidence became low, according to the Texas Farm Bureau one of the backers of the bill.

This would be the third major animal health campaign launched by Texas farmers and ranchers in recent years. The other two, against brucellosis and the screwworm have been very successful.

Poll Tax Fight Renewed — Bills which would put poll tax repeal on the Nov. 1966, ballot — via constitutional amendments — have been introduced in both houses of the Legislature.

A proposal by Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio also would try to extend the vote to all military personnel who qualified under residency requirements presently applicable to other Texas voters. House measure, co-sponsored by Dallas Representatives James W. Stroud and Cooper Blankenship, specifies that military personnel could vote only in the county in which they resided at the time they entered the service.

Communist Pursuit More Difficult — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr complained that U. S. Supreme Court is making it more difficult to enforce the state law regarding prosecution of communists.

Carr issued his statement after the high court had struck down a warrant under which he and Bexar County Dist. Atty. James Barlow seized 2,000 books and pamphlets from San Antonian John Stanford.

Material was confiscated Dec. 27, 1963, after Stanford was ordered to register as a Communist by the Subversive Activities Control Board.

"Under each decision of the U. S. Supreme Court regarding state prosecution of Communists, it becomes more difficult to enforce our state laws, but we intend to continue our efforts as vigorously as possible," Carr said.

TFB Head Opposes Charge — C. H. DeVaney, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, told more than 70 legislators attending a bureau legislative conference in Austin that redistricting solely on the basis of population would seriously hurt state and national government.

DeVaney believes the Legislature should work toward an amendment to the U. S. Constitution which would override the Supreme Court decisions on reapportionment.

Court Speaks — State Supreme Court held that Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr should approve the $48,500,000 interim bond issue of Trinity River Authority, for land purchases and construction of Livingston Reservoir, unless refusal is based on a lawsuit challenging the bonds.

Court, in a conditional order, upheld TRA's right to issue interim bonds while final bonds are in preparation. Carr objected to certain features of the bonds and cited a suit attacking the issue. He said bonds should not be approved until nine questions raised had been settled.

Supreme Court said it would not decide "questions raised by the nine objections," and directed its opinion to objections of Carr to the bonds themselves.

Court of Criminal Appeals held courts cannot decide whether state legislators from large counties should be elected countywide or in small individual districts. Ruling that the matter is up to the Legislature upheld district court decision in a suit brought by Robert Hainsworth, Houston Negro, who claims countywide elections discriminate against Negroes.

Supreme Court will hear Port Arthur's suit against ex-directors of a Jefferson County water district growing out of purchase of a water system. Lower courts held statute of limitations for hearing the dispute had run out.

Committee on State and Local Tax Policy recommended that the proportionate share of the Minimum Foundation Program which is borne by local taxing authorities in the Local Fund Assignment be increased by a total of some $19,000,000 over the next two years.

Committee stated that State government is providing $56 more per pupil for public school education than the national average, while local governments are providing $93 per pupil less than local governments of other states.

No recommendation was made regarding Governor Connally's proposal that the State ad valorem tax be abolished — one way county and city governments would have more tax leeway — but it is rumored that the committee made its recommendation with that in mind.

Tipro Pooling Bill In — Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge is garnering support for the petroleum pooling bill — a product of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, which he is sponsoring in the House.

Colored Bridges? — Texas bridges may take on an Easter egg hue.

Texas Highway Department announces it is considering painting overpasses and other structures in different colors. It already is trying out a few shades of gray.

Theory is that pastel shades will help relieve the monotony for drivers, thus making travel safer and more pleasant.

K. K. Moore, supervising paint engineer of the THD Materials and Tests Division points out two problems. First agreeing on colors, and second, more rapid fading of brighter hues. He predicts some standard color will be used in another five years.

South Dakota, a jump ahead, already is planning to paint all its interstate overpass bridges in blue, pink, green, yellow, lavender and orange.

Short Snorts — Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro was reappointed by Governor Connally to serve as Secretary of State, a term that runs concurrently with that of the governor.

Connally also reappointed to six year terms: Hal O. Woodward of Coleman to the State Highway Commission, Jack Ross of McAllen to the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, and Will Odom of Austin to the State Parks and Wildlife Commission.

South Dakota, a jump ahead, already is planning to paint all its interstate overpass bridges in blue, pink, green, yellow, lavender and orange.

Short Snorts — Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro was reappointed by Governor Connally to serve as Secretary of State, a term that runs concurrently with that of the governor.

Connally also reappointed to six year terms: Hal O. Woodward of Coleman to the State Highway Commission, Jack Ross of McAllen to the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, and Will Odom of Austin to the State Parks and Wildlife Commission.

Out-of-State Visitors to Texas Show 14% Increase Over 1963

AUSTIN, Jan. 31 — Visitors invaded the state's attractions in record numbers during 1964, a year - end survey by the Texas Tourist Development Agency has revealed.

Accounting for an increasingly significant portion of the increase was a rising volume of out-of-state guests. Note was taken also of swelling Mexican and Canadian markets.

Attendance records for the year reflect an across - the - board increase of 14 per cent — almost identical with the mid-year tabulation. But, while attractions were reporting out-of-state figures of only about 6 per cent then, by year-end non-Texas business had climbed to 24 per cent at representative sites.

Included in the tabulation were 18 attractions plus the state parks. They were situated in every part of Texas.

Together they reported hosting 24,989,714 visitors, an increase of 3,006,484 over 1963.

Indicative of the similarity in experience with burgeoning numbers of out-of-state visitors were attractions in two far-distant parts of the state: Six Flags Over Texas in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and the John F. Kennedy Memorial Causeway near Corpus Christi. Each reported identical 24 per cent increases in non-Texas business.

The Southwestern Historical Wax Museum in Dallas' Fair Park told TTDA its non-Texas business accounted for half of all tickets sold last year. And the Old Stone Fort in Nacogdoches took note of a "sharp increase" in out-of-state visitors.

Commenting on the upturn in total autumn - winter attendance, Aquarena at San Marcos talked of a 76 per cent gain in the December - January period compared with the same period a year earlier. A "tremendous increase" in visitors from Mexico was noted.

Wonder Cave, also in San Marcos, said its brisk winter

business is especially marked by Midwestern visitors. It said Canadian visitors are also much more in evidence this winter.

Turning to the accelerating pace of attendance growth, a Cameron County Park supervisor commented, "We have had an unprecedented year on South Padre Island... our motels report they are up 12 per cent over 1963.

"It took South Padre nearly six years to count its first million visitors, another four years to county the second million and the third million will take only three years."

All-time highs were reported by the Lake Texoma Association which said its nearly 8.2 million visitors last year exceeded by 160,000 the previous record of 1957.

Fort Davis National Historic Site in far West Texas was host to 86,500 visitors last year who came from 47 states and 32 foreign nations. Although only in its first year of operation as a national facility, it attracted 10,000 more visitors than the more established and better-known Fort Laramie National Historic Site in Wyoming.

The Panhandle-Plains Museum at Canyon said its 89,329 visitors came from all 50 states and 73 foreign countries. And, at the other side of the state, the Sam Houston Memorial Museum in Huntsville had guests "from every state but New Hampshire."

Largest single percentage of increase was recorded by Nacogdoches' Old Stone Fort whose 5,269 added visitors last year accounted for a 41 per cent gain over 1963.

High too was the Lake O' Pines near Jefferson in East Texas which posted a 30 per cent gain with 978,351 more guests than a year earlier.

Although giant Lake Texoma on the Texas-Oklahoma border outdrew all other individual attractions with 8,197,400 visitors.

In comparison, attendance at 45 sites in the state park system accounted for 7,910,691 guests, a 9 per cent gain over the 1963 figure.

Other significant gains were recorded by the Fort Bliss Republica Museum in El Paso, up 26 per cent; the venerated Alamo, whose 285,000 registered visitors were responsible for a 24 per cent increase, and Alamo Village near Brackettville and San Marcos' Aquarena, each up 19 per cent.

Six Flags Over Texas, in its third full season, drew 1,622,432 visitors for a 13 per cent increase.

Other reporting attractions and their percentage of gain for 1964 over 1963 include:

Buckhorn Hall of Horns in San Antonio, 14 per cent; Queen Isabel Causeway onto South Padre Island, 13 per cent; San Jacinto Battleground Museum, 10 per cent; Caverns of Sonora, 9 per cent; Witte Memorial Museum in San Antonio, 6 per cent; El Paso's Aerial Tramway, 5 per cent and the Big Bend National Park, also 5 per cent with 119,698 guests.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Education still rates top priority in the State capital. But it was viewed in a new light after Gov. John Connally revealed his program to the State Legislature.

Connally took the suggestion of his Committee on Education beyond the High School that a strong coordinating board be created to administer State colleges and universities. He adopted his plan to put public junior colleges under that board and then told the Legislators the State should assume full financing of instructional costs of junior college academic programs.

Three - Board College System — Real surprise in Connally's approach to higher education came in his proposal that all existing college and university boards of regents be abolished and the higher education institutions be regrouped into three systems.

Even this idea held an added surprise, since Connally recommended establishment of an agricultural and technical university in San Antonio, to serve all of South Texas.

Under the three system approach, there would be a University of Texas System composed of the University of Texas in Austin, Texas Western College, Arlington State College, North Texas State University, Texas Woman's University, University of Houston, Texas Southern University and all medical and dental units.

Texas State University System would consist of A & M University, Texas Technological College, Prairie View A & M College, Tarleton State College, Lamar State College of Technology, Texas A & I College and the proposed San Antonio university.

A State Senior College System would include Midwestern University, Pan American College, East Texas State College, Sam Houston State Teachers' College, Southwest Texas State College, West Texas State University, Stephen F. Austin State College, Sul Ross State College and Angelo State College.

AUSTIN — A goodly share of the 3,000 Texans who went to Washington for President Lyndon Johnson's inauguration went through the same sort of celebration — on a much smaller scale — in Austin Monday and Tuesday.

NEW BRILLIANCE FOR THE STUDENT

... with the TENSOR STUDENT LAMP, a rugged, all-metal high-intensity lamp designed specifically for student use. This mite-sized lamp weighs only 2 pounds, takes up less than six square inches on a crowded desk, yet produces a powerful, glare-free light of sun-like brilliance.

Key to its amazing performance is the Tensor-engineered transformer that steps down the voltage of a standard AC socket, steps up light intensity to the equivalent of a 100-watt conventional desk lamp.

The Tensor Student Lamp provides the perfect light for reading, for desk use at home or in the dormitory, for library work, for microscope illumination, for drafting, for dissecting, for specimen study, for model construction. It makes those last-minute cram sessions a lot easier on the eyes, too.

The lamp's flexible gooseneck arm and swivel reflector let you direct the light precisely where you want it. Yet it's practically tip-proof, thanks to its weighted base. It's good looking, too, with its neutral gray wrinkle finish and chrome gooseneck.

So brighten things for the student prince (or princess) in your family by getting him a Tensor Student Lamp. You'll find it encourages good reading and study habits. Warning: if there are more than one student in your household, better get a Tensor Student Lamp for each. People become very attached to their Tensors, don't surrender them easily.

Tensor Student Lamp: $995

THE HAMLIN HERALD
Hamlin, Texas, Thursday, February 4, 1965
PAGE SEVEN

Bill probably will have easy sailing in the Senate, where it was introduced by Sen. A. M. Aiken, Jr., of Paris, joined by Sens. J. P. Word of Meridian, Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur and Jim Bates of Edinburg.

Another bill asked by the teachers, one providing for five days sick leave a year cumulative to 30 days, was introduced by Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge. Both bills are being sponsored by the Texas State Teachers Association.

Beef Import Measure Introduced — A plan to discourage the purchase of imported beef by Texans was laid out by Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo.

His proposal would make it illegal — subject to fines up to $500 and a jail sentence — to sell imported meat, unless the grocer displays a sign six by 12 inches large, with the words, "Imported Meat Sold Here," and labels packaged meat. "Product of..." stating country of origin.

County School Support — Texas Gibbons said the bill "emphasizes safeguards to make sure pooling orders will be fair to all parties." It would allow forced pooling only after every effort to pool voluntarily on a fair basis had failed.

Hog Cholera Eradication — A bill has been introduced which would permit the Texas Animal Health Commission to cooperate with the Animal Disease Eradication branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in an effort to do away with hog cholera in the state.

If the bill by Rep. Grainger W. McIlhenny of Wheeler is passed, Texas would become the 48th state to join the nationwide program.

Authorized would be use of biologicals, quarantine of infected animals and slaughter of infected animals with payment to owners. This would not be done until incidence became low, according to the Texas Farm Bureau one of the backers of the bill.

This would be the third major animal health campaign launched by Texas farmers and ranchers in recent years. The other two, against brucellosis and the screwworm have been very successful.

Poll Tax Fight Renewed — Bills which would put poll tax repeal on the Nov. 1966, ballot — via constitutional amendments — have been introduced in both houses of the Legislature.

A proposal by Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio also would try to extend the vote to all military personnel who qualified under residency requirements presently applicable to other Texas voters. House measure, co-sponsored by Dallas Representatives James W. Stroud and Cooper Blankenship, specifies that military personnel could vote only in the county in which they resided at the time they entered the service.

Communist Pursuit More Difficult — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr complained that U. S. Supreme Court is making it more difficult to enforce the state law regarding prosecution of communists.

Carr issued his statement after the high court had struck down a warrant under which he and Bexar County Dist. Atty. James Barlow seized 2,000 books and pamphlets from San Antonian John Stanford.

Material was confiscated Dec. 27, 1963, after Stanford was ordered to register as a Communist by the Subversive Activities Control Board.

"Under each decision of the U. S. Supreme Court regarding state prosecution of Communists, it becomes more difficult to enforce our state laws, but we intend to continue our efforts as vigorously as possible," Carr said.

TPB Head Opposes Charge — C. H. DeVaney, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, told more than 70 legislators attending a bureau legislative conference in Austin that restricting solely on the basis of population would seriously hurt state and national government.

DeVaney believes the Legislature should work toward an amendment to the U. S. Constitution which would override the Supreme Court decisions on reapportionment.

Court Speaks — State Supreme Court held that Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr should approve the $48,500,000 interim bond issue of Trinity River Authority, for land purchases and construction of Livingston Reservoir, unless refusal is based on a lawsuit challenging the bonds.

Court, in a conditional order, upheld TRA's right to issue interim bonds while final bonds are in preparation. Carr objected to certain features of the bonds and cited a suit attacking the issue. He said bonds should not be approved until nine questions raised had been settled.

Supreme Court said it would not decide "questions raised by the nine objections," and directed its opinion to objections of Carr to the bonds themselves.

Court of Criminal Appeals held courts cannot decide whether state legislators from large counties should be elected countywide or in small individual districts. Ruling that the matter is up to the Legislature upheld district court decision in a suit brought by Robert Hainsworth, Houston Negro, who claims countywide elections discriminate against Negroes.

Supreme Court will hear Port Arthur's suit against ex-directors of a Jefferson County water district growing out of purchase of a water system. Lower courts held statute of limitations for hearing the dispute had run out.

Committee on State and Local Tax Policy recommended that the proportionate share of the Minimum Foundation Program which is borne by local taxing authorities in the Local Fund Assignment be increased by a total of some $19,000,000 over the next two years.

Committee stated that State government is providing $56 more per pupil for public school education than the national average, while local governments are providing $93 per pupil less than local governments of other states.

No recommendation was made regarding Governor Connally's proposal that the State ad valorem tax be abolished — one way county and city governments would have more tax leeway — but it is rumored that the committee made its recommendation with that in mind.

Tipro Pooling Bill In — Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge is garnering support for the petroleum pooling bill — a product of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, which he is sponsoring in the House.

Colored Bridges? — Texas bridges may take on an Easter egg hue.

Texas Highway Department announces it is considering painting overpasses and other structures in different colors. It already is trying out a few shades of gray.

Theory is that pastel shades will help relieve the monotony for drivers, thus making travel safer and more pleasant.

K. K. Moore, supervising paint engineer of the THD Materials and Tests Division points out two problems. First agreeing on colors, and second, more rapid fading of brighter hues. He predicts some standard color will be used in another five years.

South Dakota, a jump ahead, already is planning to paint all its interstate overpass bridges in blue, pink, green, yellow, lavender and orange.

Short Snorts — Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro was reappointed by Governor Connally to serve as Secretary of State, a term that runs concurrently with that of the governor. Connally also reappointed to six year terms: Hal O. Woodward of Coleman to the State Highway Commission, Jack Ross of McAllen to the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, and Will Odom of Austin to the State Parks and Wildlife Commission.

MENS CORDUROY JEANS

These are the ones made by Wrangler that we were sure would sell much better than Levis because they were a dollar less, but sure enough they did not. How about taking a pair for

$2.99

LADIES BOOTS

These are the boots in gold, mocco crocco, just plain with the higher top and one number is lined with fur. The original price on these were mostly $7.95. Gosh were we dumb to buy these in the first place. How about helping us out on these for

$3.97

CHILDRENS HOUSE SHOES

These are the warm fuzzy wuzzy kind that the buyers always like but the customers never seem to buy—after all, they were only $3.95—how about

97c pair

LADIES HOUSE SHOES

Some of these are in boxes that have been dusted so many times the box is worn out. If you don't care what the box looks like and would like a pair for it sure would be appreciated.

$1.00

BOYS LONG SLEEVE BANLON SHIRTS

We only have 5 or 6 of these left and they are all white (kind of a faded white in case you can't see too good). Only good thing I can think of now is that they do have two sleeves. Try one for $1.00 ?

MENS Casual Slacks

45 pair of these. The salesman told us they were extra good. Now we wonder what he meant and are beginning to see (Good for him to sell) Values to $5.98 now

$2.98

MENS DRESS HATS

The hat business is one we don't take all the credit for buying the wrong thing. One fellow says the brim is too big, the next says too small. We wonder if any brim is ever just right—couldn't be on these $9.95 hats for our sale at

$5.88

MENS SOX

Don't let the $1.00 price tag fool you on these odd and end sox. It's easy to change tags on an item as common as these poorly made sox. We warn you now that they are no bargain at

47c

LADIES HANDBAGS

You gals that have been carrying a paper bag around for use as a handbag now have your chance to buy one at a real bargain. They won't match anything you can buy anywhere in Hamlin, or any other town for that matter

THIS IS THE CRAZIEST KIND OF A SALE YOU EVER HEARD OF. TO TELL YOU THE TRUTH THERE'S NOT A THING THAT IS WORTH SHOUTING ABOUT, IT'S JUST A CONGLOMERATION OF ODDS AND ENDS. SLOW MOVERS, BUYERS MISTAKES AND THINGS YOU WOULDN'T EVEN THINK OF BUYING NOT IF YOU ARE IN YOUR RIGHT MIND. IF YOU WANT TO HAVE SOME FUN, YOU MIGHT COME ON IN AND JOIN THE CROWDS. BUT IF THE WEATHER IS COLD AND DISAGREEABLE, YOU'LL BE BETTER OFF TO JUST STAY AT HOME AND PLAY WITH THE KIDS! THERE IS NO USE WASTING YOUR MONEY !!

TIER CURTAINS

If, If, If, If the color were different, if the size were different. If they were any different they wouldn't even be curtains. The original price is different though. Were $1.98

now $1.00

LADIES DRESSES

Probably don't have your size and even if we did you wouldn't like the color. Noticed one just today that had been tried on so many times that the seams were unraveling out. Anyway we have them grouped to sell $5. - $7. - $9.

LADIES CORDUROY CAR COATS

Talk about your money's worth! We have our thoughts and you will more than likely have yours too when you see these. We are just sick of these $19.95 coats hanging on the rack all season when car coats were supposed to be so good. Wanta try one for $10.

LADIES WOOL SLACKS

It seems our buyer was down in Dallas at a certain hospitality room with this salesman. Just won't tell you any more unless you help us out and buy a pair of these for

$1.98

MENS SHOES

We have around 50 pair of these shoes. If you buy a pair of these your wife wouldn't dare be seen with you or your girl friend would just walk out on you, but if you just don't give a hoot how about trying a pair of these shoes originally priced as high as $12.95 for $5.97?

MENS SPORT SHIRTS

You will think these were made out of scraps and rejects and you may be right. Why else would you think we would sell regular $2.98 sportshirts for $1.89?

MENS SWEATERS

Our buyer evidently thought they may never make any more mens sweaters, or that is the way it seems to be as we were getting them in. We sure had a lot left anyway. How about taking your choice of these values to $10.95 for

$5.00

KNIT OVERALLS

Thank goodness we only have 8 pair of these left. To start we could match them up with the cutest little knit shirt. Now I doubt we could match them up with a color card. Want to help us out on these reg. $2.98 for

$1.98

LADIES WOOL SKIRTS

If you have sensitive skin you won't be able to wear one of these wool skirts. The wool is the rocky mountain scratchy variety. We have all sizes, styles and colors, but when we find a customer the color or the size is always wrong — But why wear an uncomfortable skirt even though you can get $9.95 to $12.95 values for $4.97?

CHILDRENS SWEATERS

The little girls from 3 to 14 age must have worn their long handles to keep warm this past season as our sales were pretty slow. (Don't know, maybe these sweaters look like long handles). Anyway we promise to buy less next year if you will take one of these off our hands for

$1.98

LADIES SWEATERS

All the stylists and even "Seventeen" magazine were stressing the fashion smartness of smart sailor collars on the bulky sweaters. How wrong could everybody be? We have 6 of these left in snow white with high color trims originally priced at $14.95

now $5.00

BOYS CORDUROY JEANS

They say "Long and Lean" — They were Lean alright — Lean on sales, that is. They are made by wrangler and should sell for $2.98. Next year we will buy nothing but Levis if you will take a pair of these for

$1.98

MENS and BOYS ROBES

These robes looked real good to the buyer evidently, but they haven't looked too good to you. Flannels, wash 'n' wear fabrics, etc. How about helping us out on these at

1/2 price?

GRAB TABLE . . .

Here is the spot to settle your curiosity — One big table piled high with grab boxes! Every item guaranteed to be at reduced prices and some terribly cheap! Buy it, if it isn't your size or style, you will have the first gift for this Years Christmas! If you will ask us on the side we will tell you frankly that this is some goods that we made such a mistake in buying that it has to be sold sight unseen — Try your luck — It might be just the item you have always wanted.

MENS Zip - Out Coats

This season's best item. Now we have 6 of them left and just to tell the truth we want to be out of them completely so we don't have to carry a stock sheet on them to market next buying trip. Values to $19.95

now $12.88

MENS JACKETS

Some of these are beginning to seem like a member of the family they have been here so long, but if you don't care about this, we have about 20 of these laminated, Wash and wear fabrics, etc., with values up to $12.95. Please help us out on these for

$5.97

LADIES CHALLIS Pajamas And Gowns

Last year the factory man sent our buyer a large bottle of something or other (Never did know what!) Now we have more of these than the factory. They were made to sell for $3.95, but I doubt they are worth the

we are asking

LADIES VELVETEEN SUITS

Bobbie Brooks velveteen suits that were supposed to fix you up in the grand manner for those Christmas parties. I believe they were priced at $24.95 and we did not sell even one! They have a Spanish look, also—maybe to fix up a rodeo deal! How about

$10.00

LADIES CRUSHED VINYL JACKETS

These have been tried on several times and each time the customer would say "I believe I'll look around a little before I decide". You probably won't like them either, but in case you do, How about

$5.00

RUGS

Room size 9 x 12 rugs. We only have 2 of these left. They are cushion foam rubber backed and 100% viscose but we never seem to have the color that is wanted. Reg. $19.95 value which we thought was a bargain. How about $11.88

BOYS HOODED Sweatshirts

Just didn't have enough of these before our last reorder. Our first shipment sold out completely, then we reordered (maybe a little too heavy) What happened to all of the people wanting the one with the zipper front that sells reg. for $2.98? Could we twist your arm and talk you into one for $1.98?

PRINTED CORDUROY

Very bad patterns — warm values. Our reg. 98c quality now

2 yards $1.00

BOYS SWEATERS

You smart kids that think you have seen everything, just haven't seen this conglomerate of boys sweaters. We took inventory on these at the first of the season, then took an inventory later in the season and had more the last of the season than we started with (How can this happen?) Would you mind helping us out on these at

1/2 price

TROOPER CAPS

The kind with the big fuzzy sides that look like a Russian kind. Just couldn't get enough of these the past season or two. This season we just couldn't get enough customers as we had the caps. They are reg. $2.98 caps in mens and boys. How about $1.98 ea.

WOMENS HATS

You've got hats in your closet that you bought five years ago that look better than these! Many of the hats have been tried on so many times they are out of shape. One woman stuck her finger thru one hat and exclaimed, "Oh, did I do that?" Want to take a chance on one? Values to $7.95 now take your pick for

$1.00

Throw Pillows

They are mostly the wrong colors — These solid color corduroy throw pillows. Our buyer sure has funny ideas of the right colors—anyway $1.00 pillows,

57c each

Rubber Rugs

If you can ease your feet with all the work around the kitchen sink, then they will be worth the

$1.33

we are asking for these $1.98 foam rubber mats.

Womens Flats

One group of regular $5.95 to higher shoes that will make your feet look flat and corns hurt now

$2.88

THERMAL UNDERWEARE

If you are with the group that likes warm underwear but light weight, try some of these. Bought special for a cold winter that did not get cold soon enough—good for all out door wear. Shirt and drawers

$1.00 each
